(E). Can the Bank transfer your personal data to third countries outside the EU?

The Bank may transfer your personal data to third countries outside the EU provided that:

(E.1) The European Commission has decided that the third country where the personal data will be transmitted, ensures an adequate level of protection for the personal data.

(E.2) The recipient of the data has provided appropriate safeguards for the protection of personal data that is being transferred.

(E.3) You have been specifically informed and have granted your explicit consent to the Bank for the transfer of your data.

(E.4) The transfer is required for the performance of a contract or the execution of your orders, e.g. transfer orders for remittance to a bank account of a financial institution in a third country, or in the event of transmission for the execution of an order for the execution of transactions with financial instruments.

(E.5) The transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of legal claims of the Bank.

(E.6) The Bank has a relevant obligation arising from a legal provision, an intergovernmental or international agreement.

As well as:

(E.7) In line with the Bank's compliance obligations with the rules on the exchange of information in the field of taxation which arise from legal provisions.

For the fulfillment of the obligations under (E.5) or (E.6) above, the Bank may transfer your personal data to competent national authorities for them to forward the data to the respective authorities of third countries.

(F). What is the retention period of your data kept by the Bank?

In the event that you enter into a contract with the Bank, your personal data will be kept for the entire duration thereof. In the event that the contract is terminated, the Bank may retain your personal data until the statutory time limit for the general waiver of claims, i.e. for a time period of up to twenty (20) years from its termination in any way. If there are any ongoing legal proceedings with the Bank or any affiliated company thereof by the end of the twenty (20) years, which concern you, either directly or indirectly, the said retention period of your personal data shall be extended until the issuance of an irrevocable court judgement.

If you do not enter into a contract with the Bank, your personal data will be kept for five (5) years from the rejection of your respective application. In case the law or regulatory acts provide for a smaller or greater retention period, the aforementioned retention period will be decreased or increased accordingly.

Documents that bear your signature and your personal data, may be kept in electronic/digital form after the lapse of five (5) years.

(G). What rights do you have for the protection of your data?

You have the following rights:

(G.1) To know which personal data that concerns you is being processed and retained by the Bank, as well as its source (right of access).

(G.2) To request the rectification and/or supplementation of your personal data, so that it is complete and accurate by presenting any necessary documents which prove the need for such rectification or supplementation (right to rectification).

(G.3) To request the restriction of the processing of your personal data (right to restriction).

(G.4) To refuse and/or object to any additional processing of your personal data kept by the Bank (right to object).

(G.5) To request the erasure of your personal data, from the Bank's records (right to erasure).

(G.6) To request from the Bank to transmit the data you have submitted thereto to any other data controller (right to data portability).

It is noted that the fulfillment of your requests under (G.3), (G.4) and (G.5) insofar as they are necessary for the execution or the continuation of the operation of the contract, regardless of whether they were provided by you or collected from any public source, entails the automatic termination from your part of the respective contract/contracts, pursuant to the terms thereof and your request will not be reviewed.

In addition, the Bank has the right in any case to refuse to fulfill your right to restriction of processing or erasure of your personal data if the processing or retention of your personal data is necessary for the establishment or exercise or support of its legitimate interests, lawful rights or its compliance with legal obligations, as referenced in chapter (C).

The exercise of your right to data portability (G.6) does not entail the erasure of your personal data from the Bank's records, which is subject to the preceding paragraph.

The exercise of the above-mentioned rights acts for the future and does not concern the processing of personal data which has already been carried out.

(G.7) You have the right to file a complaint with the Hellenic Data Protection Authority (HDP www.dpa.gr), which is the competent supervisory authority for the protection of the fundamental rights and freedoms of natural persons, for processing which concerns you, if you believe that your rights are being infringed in any way.

(H). How can you exercise your rights?

For the exercise of your rights referenced under (G) you may contact all Branches of the Bank and fill in the Data Subject Rights Form.

The Bank shall make its best efforts to respond to your request within thirty (30) days from its submission. This deadline may be extended by sixty (60) further days, provided that it is necessary at the Bank's sole discretion, taking into account the complexity of the request and the number of requests. The Bank shall inform you in any case of the extension of the deadline within thirty (30) days.

The above service is provided by the Bank free of charge. However, if your requests are manifestly unfounded, excessive or repetitive, the Bank may either charge a reasonable fee, informing you thereof or refuse to respond to your request/s.

(I). How are your rights protected?

The Bank implements all appropriate technical and organizational measures for the safeguarding of your privacy, the security of the processing of your personal data and its protection from accidental or illegitimate destruction, leak, alteration, prohibited dissemination or unauthorized access, as well as any other illegitimate form of processing.

The present notice is made for the implementation of the provisions of Greek law and Regulation (EU) 2016/679. It replaces any previous notice on the processing of your personal data pursuant to L. 2472/1997 which may be referenced in any contractual or other documents of the Bank. The Bank may update, supplement and/or amend the present notice, pursuant to the existing regulatory and legal framework. In this case, the updated version will be posted on the Bank's website (www.pancretabank.gr) and shall be available at its Branches.
